Dear Family and Friends

My experiences in Hamari Pahchan have not only been personally rewarding, but it has also been a constant source of learning for me over these years. My maiden interactions with deprived children, women, and families from low-income families made me realize the difficulties they face because of their living circumstances but at the same time, it taught me about their incredible potential and a will to be independent and competitive in this competing world. Despite the initial lag, we have been able to contribute towards the well-being of these women and children through strategic planning, networking, community organisation culminating in the initiation of various projects. It gives me great joy to share that we have successfully stretched our goal to include and focus on other underserved groups, such as unemployed males and disabled people. Capacity building, skill development, job training, and business assistance have been our niche in the previous year so that no one had to compromise on the basics of healthy living.

Team Hamari Pahchan believes in empowering people towards social justice and is working day in and day out to make people self-reliant and today I am proud to announce that we have impacted the lives of 20000 people in 2021 alone. This would not have been possible without the trust of our dearest beneficiaries, our team members who dedicated their time and energy to the cause, and our funders and supporters who provided us with resources and much-needed support to pursue our mission. The natural inclination to alleviate the sufferings of people was a dream and seeing it culminating into reality is all because of the efforts of all. Thank you to everyone!

The past two years have not been easy, the years full of uncertainties, the years which cuffed us with challenges every day but I am glad that we were able to bounce back and were flexible enough to prioritize things and bring in new initiatives to contribute towards helping people through charity and empowerment models. This year, we aim to work extensively on the Skill Development project by training at least 2000 ladies and extending the Sukhad project by creating awareness and distributing at least 50000 packets of sanitary pads at various places. In the coming months, we will be aggressively and progressively working on two new projects, malnutrition and social entrepreneurship, the details of which will be unfurled in the coming time.

I want to thank you all for celebrating the success stories with us and being our constant support when we needed it the most.

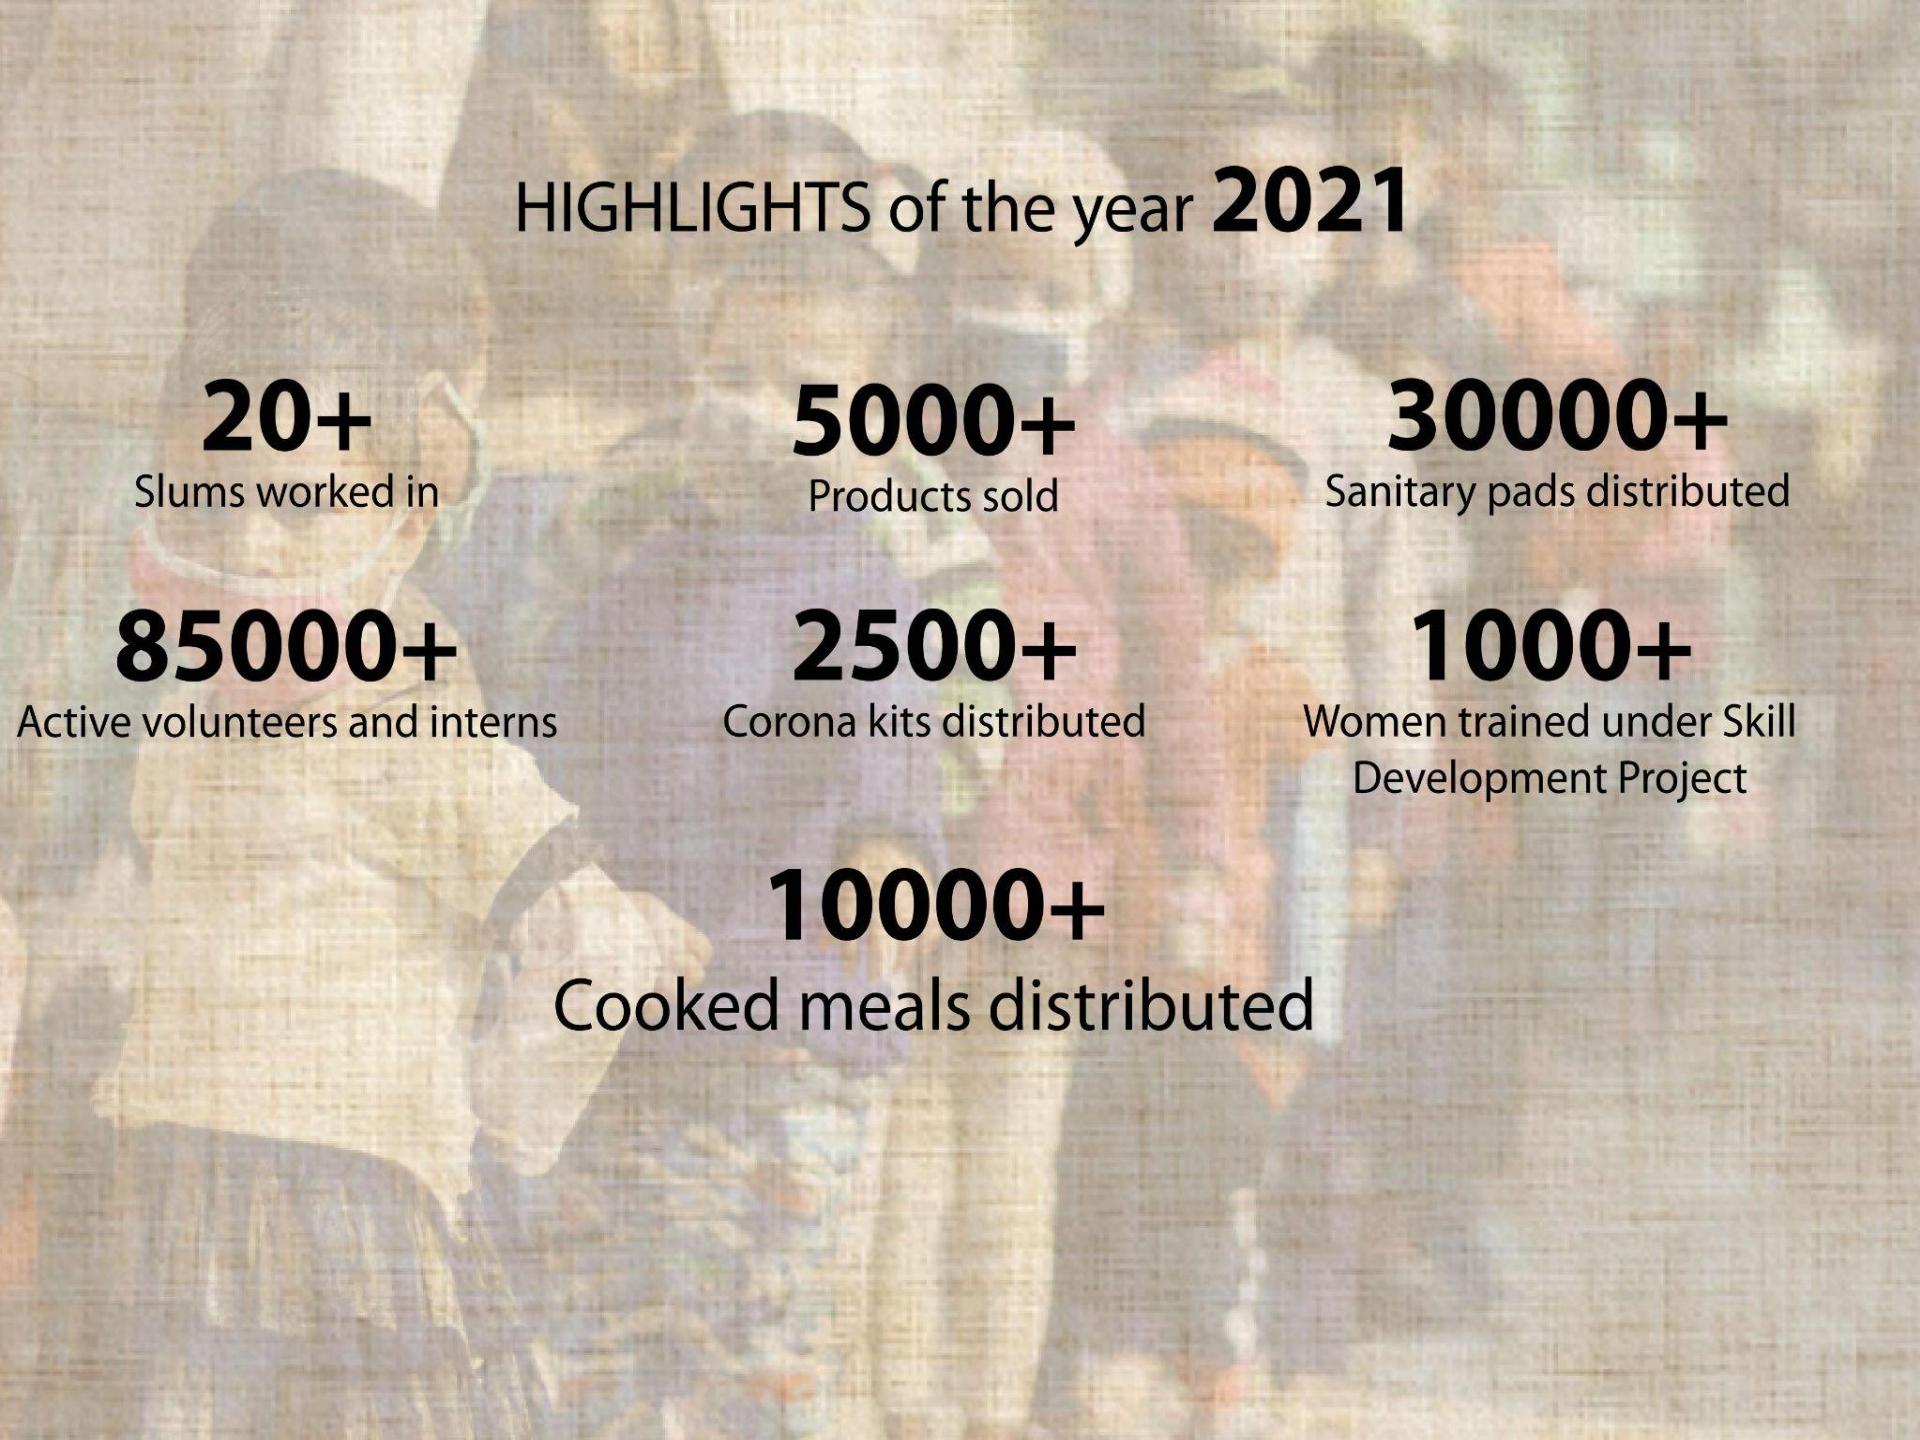

With warm wishes,

Tarun Mathur
